

HFM Asia Performance Awards 2014

HFM held its annual Asia Awards for Hedge Fund Managers on the evening of 22 September 2014.

Funds managed by Gen2 Partners were nominated in five categories. We are pleased to announce that KS Asia Absolute Return Fund won the award for the Best Multi-Strategy Fund. The Fund has an annual average return of 12.64% with 5.99% volatility since its inception in January 2010. The Fund returned 15.71% YTD.

The Fund's objective is to provide enhanced risk adjusted returns by capturing the dynamic growth in Asia Pacific (including Japan) markets while managing downside risk. The Fund aims to provide investors with superior risk-adjusted returns by combining its superior access, proven investment processes and active management of the Asia market.

I would like to thank our investors, our service providers and our staff for their continued support.
